

COMMUNITY SERVICES RECOVERY FUND RECIPIENTS
Community Foundation of Lethbridge and Southwestern Alberta

Alberta Birds of Prey Foundation, $70,000: To install high-speed internet and purchase computer equipment to allow for the delivery of consistent online educational programming for the first time.

Claresholm Community Centre Association, $19,800: To modernize meeting spaces with improved facility wifi and cell service, allowing for greater efficiency and rental opportunities.

New West Theatre Society, $31,500: To hire a consultant to develop and implement strategic practices that will help the organization grow and diversify revenue opportunities.

Southwest Alberta Regional Search and Rescue Society, $51,013: To hire a consultant to research and implement digital systems for internal data management, training, and documentation.

Southern Alcare Society and Industries, $10,000: To develop a website that will disseminate information about programs and streamline the application process.

Fort Macleod Historical Association, $40,000: To hire a consultant to develop and implement a multi-year fund development strategy.

Family Centre Society of Southern Alberta, $15,000: To modernize and improve efficacy of communication and marketing, adapt to an increasingly digital domain, and raise awareness of the Family Centre's work to secure new donors.

L'Arche Association of Lethbridge, $13,412: To upgrade the IT hardware and network equipment so that staff have the tools they need to operate and the ability to have both in-person and online meetings.

Ability Resource Association, $50,000: To upgrade the IT Infrastructure by converting the on-site servers to the Cloud, purchasing new computers, and making data more accessible.

Lethbridge Senior Citizens Organization, $27,000: To modernize by moving away from operating with paper and excel systems to a more effective digital world.

Southern Alberta Self Help Association, $49,500: To implement innovative technology, including an improved security system, new data management system, and technology for increased client access to mental health support.

Troyanda Ukrainian Dance Club, $16,000: To modernize internal operations through the purchase of updated technology, computer hardware, and financial software.

Napi Friendship Association, $15,000: To purchase new computers and financial software and to hire a consultant for staff training on the updated software.

Womanspace Resource Centre, $14,700: To hire a consultant to develop a strategic plan that will enable Womanspace to enhance services, develop new policies, and further develop community collaborations to better serve women in Lethbridge and the surrounding area.

Big Brothers Big Sisters of Lethbridge and District, $40,000: To hire support staff to review fundraising plans and help implement new strategies that will allow the organization to continue its work in the community.

Young Women's Christian Association of Lethbridge & District, $50,000: To implement software to streamline the organization's administration of payroll and human resources components.

Nord-Bridge Senior Citizens Association, $29,725: To elevate and evolve their current fundraising strategy and explore new avenues of fundraising to attract new donors and members.

Taber & District Community Adult Learning Association, $20,000: To work with IT professional services to modernize staff computers, interactive classroom technologies, and IT infrastructure more effective data security and ever greening processes.

Nanton Quality of Life Foundation, $13,000: To update policies and procedures, bylaws, and communication strategies and plans based on pandemic learnings for improved staff and client support.

Heritage Crowsnest Society, $19,350: To create a policy and procedure manual that will serve the organization for years to come.

Kainai Food Bank Society, $15,000: To review and enhance the current policies and data collection software to increase services in the community and ensure everyone in need receives services.